The Society of Cardiothoracic Anaesthesiologists Nagpur (SCAN), one of the youngest branches (established in 2019), in collaboration with Department of Anaesthesia and Critical Care AIIMS Nagpur, is organising IACTACON 2024. We welcome you to the Tiger Capital of India Nagpur, for the prestigious 27th Annual Conference of the Indian Association of Cardiovascular and Thoracic Anaesthesiologists – IACTACON2024, in the month of February 2024. Nagpur, The Orange City is not only at the Centre of India (Zero Mile), but is the centre for growth and development in many aspects

IACTACON2024 is special from all angles. Our young specialists and students can avail of the special PART PAYMENT/INSTALMENT FACILITY for registration. We welcome all students, academicians and professionals to share your original work on this platform in the form of paper /poster presentation, thereby making an impact on practices and research. You can submit your material on the conference website and keep editing it till a specific date. The details of registration, workshops, contacts for paper/poster presentations are available on our conference website www.iactacon2024.org

In the month of February, the weather in Nagpur is generally pleasant. Make this visit a memorable one by exploring the rejuvenating wild flora & fauna in the national parks – Tadoba, Pench, Umred, Nagzira-Navegaon, Bor, Melghat etc. Who knows you will be destined to get rendezvous with the majestic Tiger in one of these excursions! Nagpur offers excellent connectivity and great hospitality.

For food enthusiasts, there is a lot more than oranges here. Both vegetarians and non-vegetarian lovers have ample to tickle their taste buds and carry memorable experiences like Tarri-poha, Wada-rice, Samosa, Puran-poli, Sambhar-vadi, also Saoji chicken and mutton for those loving hot spicy food!!

Hosting IACTACON 2024 conference for the first time in Central India, we feel privileged to have this opportunity and shall do everything possible to give you all the best experience. On behalf of the Organising team IACTACON 2024, we invite each one of the esteemed IACTA members, to participate in IACTACON 2024 and experience Nagpur and its hospitality.
